FOR CLIENTS:

After more than a decade at her own firm, Carol merged her law practice with ChamberlainD'Amanda in 1995. She has more than 27 years of experience, and has represented closely held and publicly traded corporations, family-owned businesses, partnerships, governmental agencies, limited liability companies, and unincorporated associations, including not-for-profit entities. Her varied and extensive legal expertise includes:

- Trademark, copyright, licensing and other intellectual property matters
- Industry and university technology transfer, e-commerce, and Internet law
- Contracts, including distribution agreements, software licensing, and other technology agreements
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Anti-trust legal matters
- Employment and unfair competition law
- Finance law
- Commercial and residential real estate
- Health law
- Zoning and Planning
- Riparian Rights

EDUCATION:

Carol graduated magna cum laude with a B.A. in English from SUNY Buffalo in 1977, and received a J.D. degree from SUNY Buffalo School of Law in 1980.

FOR THE PROFESSION:

Carol is a member of:
